

Research Meeting

Athens, Greece June 24-26, 2016

IAPOP

The IAPOP Board would like to invite all those interested in research into the applications of Processwork to 3 days of community and skills building. The meeting will be held in Athens, Greece from June 24-26, 2016.

The meeting aims to:

- support pw research culture across the training centers
- support individual researchers with overall skills in conducting research
- promote efficacy studies on the use of pw techniques,
- help with writing style and publication
- support the development and contribution to pw journal

If you want to add further topics email:

Nancy at papathanasiou@gmail.com or

Lily at lvassiliou@gmail.com

Any further questions to Nancy, Lily or Alan at alanrichardson.psych@gmail.com

Venue

If we are a group of up to 30 people we will meet at the Processwork Hub in Athens, Giannarou 17, 17455 Alimos, Athens, Greece. If we are a group of more than 30 people we will meet at a hotel in Athens.

Registration Deadline

If you are interested in attending, please register by

January 20, 2016* by email with Nancy at papathanasiou@gmail.com

*PLEASE NOTE: It is important that we know the number of participants by that date so there is enough time to book a conference room in a hotel if we are more than 30 people.

Accommodation

The Athens Poseidon Hotel in Paleo Falero is within walking distance from the Processwork Hub. Please book directly with the hotel at poseidonhotel.com.gr or through an online hotel booking service such as tripadvisor (they often have better deals). You can also look at airbnb for rentals downtown if you prefer. The Processwork Hub is accessible via public transport by taking the tram from Syntagma Square. It is a 45 min ride from Syntagma Square. It's a 20 min drive by taxi.